RE: Formation of MediaWiki Stakeholders' Group

Dear Mr. Hershberger:

This letter will confirm that you have engaged Smoker Gard Associates LLP to represent you in connection with the above-referenced matter. The scope of our representation may change depending upon developments in this matter and further instruction from you.

The firm's representation will be for the Corporation. Each Shareholder of the Corporation is entitled to seek independent counsel if he or she feels it is necessary.

In accordance with the rules of professional conduct applicable to lawyers practicing in Pennsylvania, it is our practice to set forth in writing the basis on which you will be charged for services by our firm. The enclosed Fee Disclosure covers the billing policies that apply generally to our clients and the elements we consider in determining fees.

If either our description of the services we have been asked to provide or our billing procedures are contrary to your expectation, please let us know as soon as possible. In this instance, the basic fee, as well as the value of the time spent by professional personnel, will be the principal basis for the determination of our fee. In the absence of such notification, we will assume that you approve of and agree to the described terms of our engagement.

Our ability to serve you effectively depends in part on our having a comfortable, open relationship. If you have any questions or concerns at any time about any invoice, or about any aspect of our work, please talk candidly with us about them. We look forward to assisting you in this matter. Thank you for your confidence in allowing Smoker Gard Associates LLP to be of service to you.

We would appreciate it if you would sign and date the enclosed copy of this letter where indicated and return it to our office in the envelope that has been provided for your convenience.

Mr. Mark A. Hershberger

Please feel free to contact us should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

SMOKER GARD ASSOCIATES LLP

ACCEPTED AND AGREED to on this 29 day of November, 2018.

NOVEMBER 2018
FEE DISCLOSURE

TO OUR CLIENTS:

Thank you for selecting our firm to represent you. Please review the contents of this fee disclosure which is designed and intended to inform you of our general policies, procedures and fee structures.

THE LEGAL PROCESS

The law, with respect to many matters, can be complicated and in many instances, uncertain. Some matters can be resolved simply and in short order; others can involve complex issues and require many months of work. Although results cannot be guaranteed, it is our mutual responsibility to achieve your objective if at all possible.

COSTS

Our professional fees are based on many factors, including the hourly billing rates of the lawyers and paralegals who work on the matter, the novelty and complexity of the issues involved, the responsibility of the firm in giving legal opinions, the value of the results obtained, the urgency with which the services must be performed, and the time actually spent on your work. Currently, our hourly billing rates range from $70 to $145 for paralegals and from $175 to $225 for attorneys. Hourly rates are reviewed annually and may increase during the course of our engagement on your behalf. The following guidelines are intended to give you an idea of costs you might expect:

Basic Fees. There are some types of cases, for instance, forming a corporation, limited liability company or partnership, standard business contracts, adoption, and simple divorce, for which minimum fees have been established. When the work is more complex, requiring additional time and expertise, fees can increase in proportion to the time involved.

Contingencies. There are other matters in which the fee will be determined by the amount recovered as is often the case in personal injury and property damage situations. When our fee is contingent upon the amount recovered, a written agreement between you and this firm will specify the details.

Percentages. In certain other types of work such as collections, real estate transactions, and estate settlements, our fee may be a percentage of the money or property values involved.

Disbursements. Out-of-pocket expenses incurred on your behalf will be billed separately from fees.

Retainers. When costs can be determined or estimated in advance, or in certain other matters, we may ask you for advance payment of a retainer fee to be applied against regular billing. This enables us to represent you, and precludes our undertaking other work in the same matter. Any unused portion of such deposit will be returned to you on completion of our work.

BILLING PRACTICES

When we represent you on a contingent or percentage fee basis, or if you have made other special arrangements, we will bill you in accordance with that arrangement, or on conclusion of the matter. In all other instances, you will be billed periodically, usually monthly, or at an appropriate time in the progress of your case. All invoices are due and payable when presented to you. Payment of invoices shall be net thirty (30) days. A finance charge of one and one-half (1 ½%) will be assessed on invoices not paid within thirty (30) days from the date of the invoice. Smoker Gard Associates Attorneys at Law reserve the right to cease work on any case with outstanding invoices of more than sixty (60) days.

KEEPING INFORMED

We will make every effort to keep you aware of the progress of your case. This may be accomplished by telephone, letter or memorandum, or informational copies of correspondence we send or receive. If you need or want additional information, please call our office. On your part, if there is new or additional information or any change in the circumstances related to your case, you should inform our office as soon as possible.

RECORDS MANAGEMENT POLICY

Please be advised that our firm has implemented a records management policy. Under this policy, the firm will retain client files for a period of seven (7) years following termination of a matter, at which time the file will be destroyed. Prior to its destruction, you may forward a written request for the return of the file, which we will provide to you at no additional cost except for postage or shipping charges, provided that all sums due and owing the firm have been paid in full.

Files closed prior to the date of this notice will be reviewed before destruction, and we will attempt to return to you, at your last recorded address with our firm, any original documents contained in the file. No other notice will be provided prior to destruction of the file.

TERMINATION

Although we value continuing client relationships, you have the right to terminate our services at any time. Similarly, if you have not cooperated with our reasonable requests, if you disagree with the course of action we recommend, or if you do not pay our statements in a timely manner, we may discontinue our work for you. Whether initiated by you or by us, such termination should be in writing. Before doing so, however, you should discuss such questions with your attorney.

Please call us if you have any questions or need additional information.

NOVEMBER 2018

TO OUR CLIENTS:

Attorneys, like other professionals who advise on personal financial matters, are now required by a new federal law to inform their clients of their policies regarding privacy of client information. Attorneys have been and continue to be bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by this new law. Therefore, we have always protected your right to privacy.

In the course of providing our clients with income tax, estate tax, and gift tax advice, we receive significant personal financial information from our clients. If you are a client of Smoker Gard Associates LLP, you should know that all information that we received from you is held in confidence, and is not released to people outside the firm, except as agreed to by you, or as required under an applicable law.

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your professional needs, and in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your nonpublic personal information, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with our professional standards.

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact our office. We appreciate the opportunity to be of service to you.
